

Amy Bellah
Attorney

amy@mendrygallaw.com
(f) 214-602-3022
www.mendrygallaw.com

Amy's practice focuses on representing nonprofit and tax exempt organizations, including forming tax-exempt organizations, preparing organizational documents and policies, preparing applications for federal and state tax exemptions, and advising on issues regarding the operation, management, and taxation of tax-exempt organizations. Her practice also includes addressing sophisticated tax issues.

Amy is involved in her local community through her volunteer work, with a particular focus on serving children and teens in the foster care system. Prior to attending law school, Amy was an elementary school teacher with the Garland Independent School District.

Education

J.D., with highest honors, Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law, 2011
B.A., Southern Methodist University, 2004

Professional Experience

Mendrygal Law, PLLC (2016-Present)
Baker Botts LLP, Houston (2012-2014)
Haynes and Boone, LLP, Dallas (2011-2012)

Community Activities

- Love Fosters Hope, Volunteer
- Woodsedge Community Church, Member and Volunteer